“ Prayers are with you Paula and your family. What an inspiration Bill was to the community as well as us, not letting his health be of a hinderance in his professional work. He will be missed but he is praising and singing of his Lord and Savior as he did when he witnessed to my siblings and myself as we were working on our parent's estate. May God continue to wrap his arms around you and your lived ones.

“ Paula and family. Having grown up in Sutton, I've known of the Bergens 'forever!' When my folks passed last year, Bill was right there with support. He didn't put the spot light on himself or his cancer. When we did ask, though, Bill honored God with his words and trust in Him. What a powerful example that even when faced with death, he trusted in Jesus' saving blood. I pray each and every one of you will feel God's lovin' arms around you at this time.

“ I am so sad to hear of Bill's passing, but know he is in a better place and resting after such a courageous fight. I have great memories of our conversations about baseball, especially his beloved St. Louis Cardinals. I thought of Bill as one of the pillars of my home town; his passing leaves a big void in Sutton. I am so thankful to have had the opportunity to see Bill this past July, and to talk a little baseball. He will be missed. My heart goes out to Paula, Max, and his entire family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I know he was a very good Father & Husband and will be greatly missed. The good news is that he was a believer in our Savior, Jesus Christ and you will see him again! As you mourn, may you find peace in Christ, hope in your beautiful children & grandchildren and comfort in Boston Terriers (you know I had to try to make you smile).

“ The end of a 4 year journey.
Bill, a leader in his community, school, sports, and certainly in his family and chosen profession. His outgoing personality extended to his fellow patients as well as the staff at NE Hematology and Oncology.

We will miss Bill deeply and extend our thoughts and prayers to Paula and the family.
