“ We are so sorry for your lost. Brenda will be missed a lot. She was always so concerned about Bill's health. She always asked questions about him and never mentioned her health at all unless I asked. She always lifted us up in our bad times. She was a special person from God. She is also in heaven with no pain now. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Brenda Hahn family today and always.

“ In times like these, I always think of Job. After losing everything (livestock, children, servants, home, etc) in an instant, 20-22 says....."Then Job arose and tore his robe and shaved his head and fell on the ground and worshiped. And he said, "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD." In all this Job did not sin or charge God with wrong. This is an extremely difficult concept to just simply accept and will take a lot of time to get there, but I pray you come to peace with the situation one day and thrive on the fact Brenda is no longer in this world full of sin, but in a better place with no suffering.

Prayers with you, Walt, Amanda, Clyde, Dustin, and Kale
