Charles was born February 29, 1932, to Verne and Cora (Kavanaugh) Hoarty in Sutton, NE. Charles grew up in Sutton and attended Sutton Public Schools. He served in the Army during the Korean War in the 204th Field Artillery Battalion. After the war, he returned home to farm on the family homestead in Fillmore County. On October 8, 1955, he married Arlene Watts at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Sutton. To this union, six children were born.

Charles worked for the Post Office for many years including as acting Post Master and rural mail carrier. He raced stock cars and micro-midgets around the region as a younger man. He had a fondness for animals especially dogs and cats. Charles loved the serenity of sitting at his farm, the thrill of buying and selling cattle and spending time with his friends over coffee. He had a large loving family that he enjoyed spending time with.

“ I'm sending my deepest sympathy to the Hoarty family. My father, John Klein, always enjoyed talking to Charles when he delivered the mail. When I was traveling and singing, I sent postcards to my parents from my travels. Charles told my dad that he and my mom got the most interesting mail in Sutton, which pleased them very much! When my dad died, Charles sent a very touching letter to me, which I appreciated so much. He was a true gentleman. RIP, Charles.

“ It's sad to hear that he is gone. I knew him as a veteran friend and neighbor when I lived in Sutton. He was always willing to visit about all things. He helped me get through tough times in my life and I will always be grateful for his friendship. My prayers are with the family.
