He was employed as an elevator operator for over 40 years in Saronville, Bixby, and Sutton. After retiring from CPI, he began working for Van Kirk Brothers and was still a part-time employee.

He enjoyed time with family and friends, especially being the grill master at barbeques. He liked his weekend getaways going camping and fishing. Oftentimes his best friend Marty would join him and Lori at the lake. In his younger years, he was an avid bowler who mastered the skill of bowling strikes between his legs. He would challenge anyone to a headstand competition. More recently, he looked forward to ending his day surrounded by friends at the round table.

“ Great memories of the days when Buck would hang out in Clay Center back in the early to mid 70's. Dryer rides at the CC laundromat and bumper sledding around the town square are just a couple of the good times we shared.
