Fred was born the second of twin boys on November 19, 1917 on a farm near Hampton, NE to William and Elizabeth (Siebert) Nunnenkamp. He became a child of God through the washing of Holy Baptism on December 23, 1917.

Later his parents moved to a farm south of Aurora where he attended a rural country school. He was confirmed in the Lutheran Christian faith.

Fred served his country in World War II as Sargent in the 400th AAA AW BN Battery C from September 1942 through November 1945.

On February 6, 1947, he was united in marriage to Laura Trautman at her parents' home near Grafton, NE. They lived and farmed south of Aurora for five years. They then bought a farm west of Sutton, NE where they raised their family. The Lord blessed this union with four children, one daughter and three sons. In 1985, they built their retirement home just east of the home place. They celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary this year. Fred was a member of First Lutheran in Aurora and after they moved to Sutton became a member of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church. He was an active member and served in all offices. He also served on the Sutton Co-op board. The Lord called Fred out of this life to life Eternal on December 3, 2016 at the age of 99.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife Laura, son Kenneth and friend Janice Samuelson, son Ardean, wife Linda, daughter Janice, husband David Keim and son Lyle, wife Debra all of Sutton. Eleven grandchildren, Bradley Nunnenkamp, Crystal Friesen, Michele Malousek and Suzanne Martin, Clint, Jason and Anthony Nunnenkamp, Dona Keim, Brett and Dustin Nunnenkamp and Ashley Ray. Twelve great grandchildren, Dawson Nunnenkamp, Adilyn and Jadyne Friesen, Chloe and Breanna Spady, Ivy and Violet Nunnenkamp, Kayla and Kelsey Nunnenkamp, Xavier Lewis and Liam Nunnenkamp, and Briella Keim. Sisters, Bernice Trautman of Seward, NE, and Wilma, husband Dean MacDonald of Riverside, CA., Sister in law, Elizabeth Nunnenkamp of Cosby, MO. Nieces, nephews and many other family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William and Elizabeth, six brothers, John, Harold, Wilber, Eugene, Leroy and George, two sisters, twins Lela Livingston and Letha Mortensen, five sisters in law, two brothers in law and one daughter in law Barb Nunnenkamp.

“ It is with a sadden heart to hear "Grampa" Nunnenkamp was called to his heavenly home by our Lord...Rest in Peace "Grampa"....seems like just yesterday that Barb introduced me to the family (actually 39 years ago)....you were a wonderful man and father and grandpa and husband to your family ...never knew you speak a harsh word to anyone....I consider it a privilege to have known you ...may you find peace with our Lord in your heavenly home above...and to the family I send my deepest sympathy and prayers that the Lord put his loving arms around you all in this time of sorrow...Sue, Brian, Wade and Warren Akset

“ The family is our thoughts and prayers. Fred was a true American hero, he served his country during World War 2, then raised a great family. Now he can rest in peace. He lived an honorable life.
