“ Our hearts cry for you. The emptiness left behind is so deep and so wide. Allow the Lord to wrap you in his loving arms and hold tight to his love that you may know his Peace, as friends and loved ones and time begin to fill the huge void with beautiful memories. Our thoughts and prayers are with you

“ Jesus. Jesus Christ. Say His Holy Name, over and over and over again.

His Mercy knows these precious kids, by name, now and into infinite eternal life.

I am a friend of Sandy Creek, having served the Catholic parish in Dewese for eight years. My heart is with you all.

“ We are so sorry for the tragic loss of Jake and Tayler. I will forever be grateful for the friendship between Jake, Samantha, Blake, and Connor, and the wonderful example he set for my kids to follow. Jake always went out of his way to say "hi" and acknowledge us with a friendly nudge, his infectious smile, or a joke. We cherish the memories with him on our bike rides, at the swimming pool, at school, and elsewhere. Know that in this time we are praying for peace and comfort for you, and will continue to do so as time passes.
With much sympathy and love,
Michelle

“ I can't find the words to say how very sorry I am for your loss. I am sending a memorial to the bank since I don't have your address since you moved from the farm.
