“ Tim, Vicky, and Shelly, your Mom was loved by so many. I would like to share a memory. Your Mom and Jr. we're working a farm in Red Oak, Iowa I believe. I was 10 or 11 years old and begged to stay a few days with them (to help with the baby of course). When Jr. would come in for dinner he would grab his guitar and start playing. Janet would be making dinner, and of course I would be holding Tim. As Jr. Played and sang Janet would harmonize. I thought they were so good that they should be on a stage for all to hear. This was the best three days of that summer for me. I also loved her so much that I chose her name as my confirmation name.

I am sad to say we will have to watch virtually, because we are in Manzanillo, Colima, Mexico. May her sweet little heart "Rest In Peace"

Love,

Bob and Cyndi Brown (Adeline Temme's daughter)
