“ Deepest sympathy for your loss. Aunt Janet was a very loving Lady. My Dad loved being with her and talking about anything. Say Hi to everybody for us. Till we meet again. 😭

“ Once I went to college, I remember calling Grandma from time to time. I'd always have to check the time, because if it was between 10 and 11, I knew she wouldn't answer because she'd be watching the Price is Right.

I remember being at daycare at Aunt Wendy's and Grandma Scheidemann would come visit us kids and everyone was so excited.

I told my roommate in college many many stories about Grandma Scheidemann and up until her death, we'd still chat about her. My favorite was story was when Grandpa was mad at her for losing a ring with black hills gold in it. She found it after he passed, she went to his grave, and said, "Here, I found it!" I'm remembering so many stories about her and it makes me laugh and I know she will be missed.

I know she is looking down on us and very happy to finally have an eye on all the grandkids and great grandkids at once.

I already miss you, Grandma. Until we meet again, I'll be drinking a Bud Light every now and then in memory of you.

Love you, Ansley, Andrew, and Zoey.

“ Janet is the first person I remember, remembering. Her personality made her impossible to forget. She worked with my mom, Lois Brehm/Ulmer at the Skyliner when I was a kid. I saw her off and on over the years and was always glad when I did. I was sad to hear of her passing.
