“ My parents, John and Irene Klein, were neighbors of Tom and Louise's. They purchased the property for their home from my dad. They were wonderful neighbors and when my dad passed away and my mother was recuperating from a broken hip, they were so kind and helpful to her. I always visited Tom and Louise when I came back to Sutton for class reunions. I was there on the 24th and stopped to visit on the 25th, and that is when I found out that they had both passed away. My deepest sympathy to Loren and family. I'll never forget your wonderful parents.
