December 16, 1925 - March 31, 2017

Fairfield resident, Lucille M Jorgensen, 91, passed away Friday March 31, 2017 at the Harvard Rest Haven in Harvard Nebraska.

Lucille was born in Fairfield, Nebraska on December 16, 1925 to John and Josie (Slama) Blaha. She graduated from high school in Fairfield, and obtained college scholarships as valedictorian of her class.

She married A.K. "Tub" Jorgensen on January 17, 1959. Lucille held various jobs in Lincoln and Omaha Nebraska and loved to walk wherever she had to go. Lucille loved visiting with friends and their children in Fairfield, and would attend many of their sporting activities at Sandy Creek High School. Lucille and her sister Dorothy marked their place at Ken & Al's in Fairfield for years, and the locals would listen to their wonderful stories, which were many. Lucille loved to work crossword puzzles, play solitaire, and would buy a lottery ticket....or three, to bide her time.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband "Tub", and brother-in-law, Stanley Bissantz. She is survived by her sister, Dorothy of Fairfield and numerous friends.

“Lucy was inspirational for me for her great work ethic, sharp mind and humor, and loyal, great friendship to many. It was a pleasure for me to know her and see her every day when she worked in the Nebraska Department of Economic Development. I was also glad I was able to see her now and then after she moved back to Fairfield. She was a truly wonderful person.”
