She went to country school, then to Sutton High School and graduated with the class of 1940. She married Everett Carlson on April 8, 1944, in Lincoln, NE. They lived in Lincoln and Omaha where they were both employed at the Glenn L. Martin Bomber Plant. She was a "Rosie the Riveter" and helped assemble the B-29 Superfortress planes.

They later bought a farm southwest of Sutton where their three children were raised. She started working at the Sutton Community Home in Sutton when it

“ I had the opportunity to met Lucille at Perkins 400 while she was recuperating from knee surgery and I was recuperating from hip surgery. We had all of our meals together every day and I cherish the time that we had together. She was a wonderful person that I had the privilege to get to know. I know that you all will miss her terribly. It sounds like she had a full life and I know that she loved each and every one of you.
