She attended Wesley Hospital School of Nursing in Wichita, Kansas, and became a Registered Nurse. Joan met Wayne Brauning, from Sutton, at an Intervarsity meeting while he was a student in Lincoln, Nebraska, and they were married in 1956. They moved, shortly thereafter, to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where Wayne attended Westminster Theological Seminary. She was active in pro-life work, helping to found Alpha Pregnancy Services (now called AlphaCare), serving on its Board of Directors for 19 years. She and her husband, Wayne, lived in Philadelphia for 38 years, until moving to Coatesville, PA. In 2013, Joan and Wayne moved to Williamsport, PA, to be close to family, where she was a member of New Life Presbyterian Church (OPC). Her memorial service will be held there in May.
