

Maxine Wanda Daum

August 16, 1923 - June 30, 2019

Maxine "Mickie" Wanda (Cook) Schneider Daum, 95 years, 10 months and 14 days, died Sunday, June 30, 2019, at the Sutton Community Home, Sutton, NE.

In honoring Mickie's wish to be cremated and to not have a service a private inurnment will be in the Spring Creek Cemetery; Ruskin, NE at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Sutton Community Home Foundation to assist in their new facility update or to the Federated Church, Sutton, NE.

Mickie was born August 16, 1923, in Cozad, NE, to Everett and Roxy (McKim) Cook. She attended Cozad Public School. She married Donald Schneider on March 12, 1943. After Donald's death (1990) she married Robert Daum of Fairfield on February 14, 2001 (deceased 2005).

Mickie was an active member of the Federated Church, Sutton NE. She enjoyed attending various social groups such as; Flower Club, Bridge Club, Ambassador Club traveling group (taking many enjoyable trips) and Post 61 Women's Auxiliary. Mickie made many cherished friendships throughout her life no matter where she was. She felt she was able to make an impact on others as they'd impacted her.

Survivors are her daughter, Susan Overturf (Martin) of Sutton; granddaughters, Nikole Gemar (Steve) of Sutton; Renae Martens (fiancé Michael Mousel) of Oak; 2 great-grandchildren, Sydnee and Austin Gemar, Sutton.

Preceded in death are her parents, Roxy and Everett Cook; brother, Burton Cook; and sister, Dr. Ruth I Cook.

“Mickey was such a kind lady a true joy to behold. She had a gentle smile and a welcoming hug. She shared her wisdom with me in Bible Study at the Legion, "Pancakes and a Psalm." She loved her Lord, her church and all the children. May God be with you as you mourn. May the memories that come to mind warm your heart. Be comforted in the knowledge that Mickey is safe and secure in the arms of the Savior.
