“ Bob & Docia,

We offer our condolences to both of you in the passing of Nick. We hope that your faith will serve as a bedrock of strength as you reflect back on your life of raising Nick. We can't imagine the pain of losing one's child, so it is hard for us to come up with words that satisfy the moment.

Trust in the fact that we, along with many others, are holding you both in prayers for healing and strength. Take the time to care for yourselves in the weeks and months ahead.

“ I used to babysit Nick when he was two-years-old. He was a precious little boy & I couldn't get enough of his infectious smile! He was a pistol & a half! Always wanting to try something new but hesitant until his sister Dany did it first. He grew up into a loving & endearing young man! He never met a stranger! My heart hurts for his three sons. And am heartbroken for Bob & Docia. God always seems to call the best ones Home before we're ready for them to go! I hope that the memories of Nick, will help his family find His peace & love in the days ahead.
