Services will be live-streamed through the Clay Center Christian Church YouTube page. <https://www.youtube.com/@claycenterchristian6395>.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the family to be designated later.

Pamela "Pam" Kluver was a woman whose love shaped every life she touched. Anyone who knew Pam knew she was always eager to help. She gave her whole heart to her family, her friends, her neighbors, and every child who ever walked through her door. She would do anything to help others or put a smile on their face. Her family was her world, and her children's friends quickly became her extended family. To know Pam was truly to love her.

Pam had a gift for making everyone feel welcome. With her beautiful eyes, warm smile and gentle face, you instantly knew you were in the presence of a wonderful friend. She had a lifelong passion for photography, interior design and decorating her beautiful home. She loved taking pictures of her family & friends at celebrations. Wherever you saw Pam, you knew she would be taking your picture & every single memory was cherished through her photos.

Pam was born on June 25, 1954, in Hebron, Nebraska, to William and Lou Peperkorn. She grew up in Fairbury with her brothers, Dan and Bob, and graduated from Fairbury High School in 1972. On April 14, 1972, she married the love of her life, Darrell Kluver of 53 years, and together they raised two children, Klay and Karisa.

Pam developed a strong work ethic early in life and passed that on to her children. Through her lifetime, she was a cheerleader, a jazzercise instructor, and a homemaker. One of her cherished memories was dancing at Giants Stadium in 1986 during the Statue of Liberty Centennial Celebration. She spent countless hours helping on the family farm and devoted herself to her children's activities. Years later, she relived that joy with her grandchildren, Luke, Jake, and Georgia, doing anything and everything for them.

Pam passed away on March 17, 2026, at her home after many years of bravely battling Lupus. Even on her hardest days, she carried herself with strength and grace, often hiding her pain behind the smile she was known for.

She is survived by her mother, Lou Speth; her brother, Bob; her husband of 53 years, Darrell; her son, Klay and his wife, Michelle and their children, Luke, Jake, and Georgia; her daughter, Karisa and her husband, Blake Troester; along with nieces, nephews, and many friends who loved her dearly.

She was preceded in death by her father, Bill; her brother, Dan; stepfather, Dallas; father and mother-in-law, Eldon and Marcella Kluver; and other family members.

Pam leaves behind a legacy of love, loyalty, and wholeheartedness. She loved people, and because of that, she will be loved forever.

“ Pam was my cousin . We live far away, so we never got a chance to be really around her too much. And I'm so sorry for kids and her husband. Daryl should be truly missed. I loved watching her pictures of her house with all their Christmas decorations up her family pictures, her grandkids, the golfers, the volleyball talking about the farm. It's truly gonna be hard on Babe, her mom and Bob her brother. Love all you guys. Hugs to all of you .

“ I am so so sorry for your broken hearts. Pam was such an amazing woman, I don't think I ever saw her without a smile in her face. Everything about her was so genuine. Even if you didn't know her very well you felt like she was your friend, she made you feel that. The world is a little less bright.
