To all of Rick's family. Rick will always live on in my heart. Was like losing a brother. Threw the years we were all always just a heart beat away. He and Rocky could tell the stories.. which I am sure they are doing again right now. We loved him allot. He will be missed but I am so glad he is never going to have to struggle to breath again. Jo we love you bunches wrap up all those memories and store them in your heart. They are yours forever.
