“ Dear Dad, today is the day we celebrate your life. You were such an honest, hard working, caring man. I never stopped learning from you, and was so honored to be your daughter. I will miss your big hugs, talks, and spending time with you. Especially sitting outside in the evenings, or around the kitchen table. Watching husker games together, scratching off Bingo cards, Sudoku puzzles, listening to your stories, laughing, and sharing a drink or two. So many memories I will hold dear. I will forever miss you, but I know that you are watching over me, as you always did. One day we will be united again. I love you! Your Daughter, Sandra
