“ Susan and family;
I am so deeply sorry for the loss of your dear Bob. I know it's been a couple of months but I also know that grieving has no time limit. I wanted to share something with you that brings me a lot of comfort at times like this. It's God's promise found at Rev. 21:4 - "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

May this thought give you strength and encouragement now and in the days ahead. Please accept my deepest heartfelt sympathy.

“ I am really gonna miss you!! Our relationship has grown SO much in the last 8 years of being family together. I'm glad that you don't have to suffer and be in pain anymore. I will never forget all the memories that we have made together...racing, working on Shawn's trucks, the Holidays, hedge trimming lol, cookouts, playing games (even though u weren't really playing lol) our wedding and renewal, calling Shawn just to see what he was doing but really wanting him to come over :)...Thanks for taking care of Shawn, Steve, & Sam when they needed a Dad and you were always there for them no matter what was going on. Thanks for all the memories that you have given them and the grandkids. They are really going to miss you but you have left a HUGE imprint on all of our lives. Thanks for everything that you have given everyone that you have met in your life. You were a great man and thanks so much for that. We know you are always with us and you are our guardian angel now!! We will meet again someday and we love you so much!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Rest in Peace Bob, Dad, Grandpa!!!!

“ Our foremost thoughts and our heartfelt sympathies are with you now and in the coming days, Sue. May you and Bob's entire family find strength in each other to get all of you through this trying time, and while you will miss him always, may a river of loving memories of your good Husband, Father, Grandfather, Brother, Uncle, Friend
...gently carry you all to comfort and peace, in heart and soul.

"Those we love and lose are always connected by heartstrings into infinity."
